

SPONSORSHIP LEVELS and ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

August 6th 2016

62 years ago Sir Roger Bannister broke the 4 Minute Mile!!! There were five other athletes in that historic 1954 race. One of those runners was an American theological student; George F. Dole.

This summer the Fryeburg New Church Assembly (FNCA) in Fryeburg, Maine, will be hosting the 3rd Annual road race as a celebration of the life, legacy, and good humor of Rev. Dr. George F. Dole. He is a former resident of Fryeburg and has been attending the FNCA; a family oriented church camp on the banks of the Saco River, nearly every August of his 84 years.

Runners World Magazine compared our race with the prominent Beach to Beacon, "If the Dole 3 Miler doesn't have the size and sweep of Beach to Beacon, nobody seems to mind. While the larger race has always been about Samuelson introducing her state and the running world to each other, the smaller is about a tight-knit community reflecting the love they have for one of their own."

Please support our tight-knit community as a sponsor. Your funding will be used to assist the FNCA, the Church of the New Jerusalem and the Maine Mountain Division Trail (all 501(c)(3) non-profit organizations).
